

COLCHESTER RIFLE CLUB Ltd

President Mr S Penrose

With effect from 25th May 2018 there will be new legislation coming into effect which replaces the current Data Protection act. This is called the General Data Protection Regulation, or often called GDPR. This new legislation strengthens the rights of individuals when Companies use, collect and share their personal data.

In this respect, in order for Colchester Rifle Club Limited to store your personal information, which we currently use for Annual Subscription and Land Levy renewal reminder purposes; notification of AGMs and EGMs; Armoury purposes; informing you of Club Activities; issuing of Safe Shooter Certificates and general Club Administrative Activities; Affiliation to National bodies and Insurance; complying with the Firearms (Amendment) Act 1997, we need your written consent. Therefore we would be grateful if you could complete the section below and return the entire form to the Club Secretary as soon as possible.

Our lawful basis for storing or processing your personal information is your written consent, any legal requirement and any contract entered into.

Please note that for Affiliation and Insurance purposes we do have to provide some of your data to the relevant organisations; it is your responsibility to keep the information we hold up to date as failure to do so may affect your ability to claim on the insurance policies.
